I used to be an avid gamer a few years ago, but I have to say work kept me away from most of the games I wanted to play. Last December, I returned to the gaming scene, not as a gamer, but as an independent game developer. Being away from gaming also caused me to stay away from the indie gaming world, and that's one reason I found the book 250 Indie Games You Must Play so valuable.

Indie Games, many on the forefront of new ideas in game design, seem as far from old fashion printed media as you can get. However, Mike Rose has done an incredible job of providing those interested in Indie Games with a primer -- a collection of games spanning platforms and styles that give you a great overview of what it means to be an indie ...
