Both 'I am here' and 'here I am' are commonly used as a way of identifying your location. 'I am here' is used to aggressively declare your location to everyone, and can be used as a way of claiming the territory you stand on. 'Here I am' is a less strong statement and may be in response to someone searching for or looking for you.

Here I Am includes some Bacharach hits that we've heard over the years perhaps too much. However, Bacharach has done some beautifully refreshing arrangement changes, and Isley has added his unique gift to make every song subtly different yet comfortably familiar. Every classic on this CD is a repeated pleasure for the ear and heart.
