On the Road to Baghdad by Güneli Gün - Goodreads

Home » Turkey » Güneli Gün » On the Road to Baghdad. Güneli Gün: On the Road to Baghdad. A picaresque, magic realism novel is not necessarily what you might expect from a Turkish author but this novel is just that. As well as being picaresque and magic realist, it is also historical, set in the late fourteenth, early fifteenth centuries.

Gün: On the Road to Baghdad | The Modern Novel

The road is Highway 1, bracketed by Army checkpoints and serpentine barriers to the north and south of the main camp, separated by a fence from the fields and houses beyond. Civilian truck convoys jam the shoulders, waiting for military escorts that will lead them out of Scania, back to Kuwait or north to Coalition bases.
